ORDER CONFIRMING DEFENDANTS' PROPOSED IDENTIFICATION OF GROUP LIAISON COUNSEL

The defendants, in unison, have proposed the attorneys listed below to act as liaison counsel (or alternate) in each defendant group for such purposes set forth in the court's order of 09/07/12 [Doc #462], principally to operate as the primary contact and organizational leader for each of the groups, but having no responsibility for formally representing any defendant within the group other than liaison counsel's own client.

Liaison counsel (or alternate) shall participate in every status or telephonic conference, and no other counsel will be required to attend the conference. Other, non-liaison counsel may attend, at their election, with reasonable cause.<sup>1</sup> Therefore,

IT IS ORDERED that the proposal is ACCEPTED and each of the following attorneys is APPOINTED AS LIAISON OR ALTERNATE LIAISON COUNSEL until further order of the court:

Group 1 - Liaison: Mark A. Satawa; Alternate Liaison: Jerome Sabotta

Group 2 - Liaison: Loren Dickstein; Alternate Liaison: Sidney Kraizman

Group 3 - Liaison: Margaret S. Raben; Alternate Liaison: Michael J. McCarthy

Group 4 - Liaison: William W. Swor; Alternate Liaison: Gerald J. Gleeson

<sup>1</sup> The court is obligated to bear in mind efficiency in the management of this case, and seeks to avoid the accumulation of unnecessary expenses. Accordingly, it should be noted that a non-liaison attorney who is specifically not required to attend rudimentary and non-critical scheduling conferences, as the court contemplates herein, but who elects to attend, especially repeatedly and without meaningful participation, could be seen as engaging in unproductive work, billing for which under the Criminal Justice Act may be subject to further inquiry, reduction, or disallowance.
